 KARATSU

Yobuko Morning Market (呼子朝市)
 TEL 0955-82-3426
 It is open from 7:30 am till 12:00 pm. Fresh, original and cheap seafood from Yobuko is sold here.

Hamasaki Gion Festival (浜崎祇園祭)
Hamatama Town Date: July 4th Saturday and Sunday
 Men with festival costumes on pull three gigantic floats around the town. The Oumagiri performance, which vigorously spins the floats around many times at Suwa Shrine, is really something to see.

Nagoya Castle Museum (名護屋城博物館)
 TEL 0955-82-4905
 It is located inside the remains of Nagoya Castle and exhibits materials of the history of cultural exchange between the Asian continent and Japan from ancient to contemporary times.

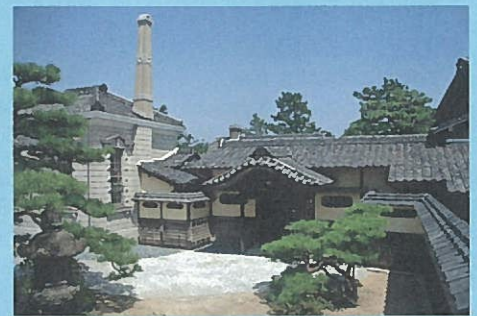

Karatsu Ware (唐津焼)
 Karatsu Ware, bringing out the coarse texture of local clay, is a warm and earthy pottery with its pleasant color and designs. Karatsu Ware is also one of the three most famous Japanese tea utensils that have been cherished by tea ceremony masters since the 16th century. The more the pottery is used, the more it takes on the different characteristics of its users.

Karatsu Castle (唐津城)
 TEL 0955-72-5697

Hikiyama Float Exhibition Hall (曳山展示場)
 TEL 0955-73-4361
 Fourteen festival floats, playing the main role of the Karatsu Kunichi festival, are exhibited here. Covered in Japanese paper, lacquered to harden, and plated with gold leaf, these floats are absolutely gorgeous. Over half of them were built in the Edo era.

The Former Takatori Estate (旧高取邸)
 TEL 0955-72-4963
 This is the former house of Koreyoshi Takatori, a coal magnate in Karatsu. Featuring a Noh stage and Japanese painting on cedar panels, it is luxuriously furnished.
